

National Accreditation Scheme

Application for Accreditation

Doc Ref: A003 | Version: 008 | Date 10 Feb 2021

Introduction

The AIBS Accreditation Scheme establishes criteria that must be met by building practitioners, such as building surveyors and building certifiers, seeking accreditation in order to practice as a Building Surveyor, Building Surveyor Limited or Assistant Building Surveyor. Applicants seeking accreditation must complete this form and demonstrate that they have the qualifications, skills, knowledge and experience required by the Scheme.

Application fee

A fee is required to be paid at lodgement of an application for accreditation and the fee for an application lodged in Australia is $275 (including GST). The fee for an application lodged outside of Australia is $310 (including GST).

How to complete this form

1. Read all the information included in the application package and complete the application form.
2. Make sure that you include all the necessary supporting documents.
3. Academic transcripts, membership and registration certificates must be certified by a Justice of the Peace, or otherwise attached to a properly-executed statutory declaration confirming their authenticity.
4. ID photographs are only required if you want an Accreditation ID Card. Once received, AIBS will keep your ID photograph on record for three years. They may be electronic or hard copy, and must be certified by a guarantor.
5. Remember to tick off the checklist before lodging the form.
6. Lodge this application form with the Australian Institute of Building Surveyors and pay the fee.
7. Make sure you attach the cover sheet with your application even though you do not need to fill anything out on it.

 This symbol indicates supporting documents which you must include with your application.

Lodgement

You may submit this form electronically via email or file sharing (please send to accreditation@aibs.com.au), or alternatively via post. Should you choose to post your application, please ensure it is presented in a scannable format, as assessment of accreditation applications is conducted electronically.

How do I certify a copy of a document?

JP certification: Take your original document/s along with the photocopies to a Justice of the Peace. Ask them to write the following statement on a blank area of the photocopy "This is a true and correct copy of the original document." Ask the authorised person to sign and date the copy, then legibly write or stamp his or her name, title and address.

Statutory Declaration: Download a copy of the Australian Commonwealth Statutory Declaration from the Australian Attorney-General's website and follow the instructions indicated: <https://www.ag.gov.au/Publications/Statutory-declarations/Pages/default.aspx>
Attach the completed statutory declaration to documents as indicated above.

Who qualifies as a guarantor?

To act as a guarantor a person:

- must be an Australian citizen who is 18 years of age or over;
- must have known the applicant for at least 12 months. If you have recently moved from interstate you should contact someone who qualifies in your previous state and arrange to have the guarantor section (and photograph endorsement) completed;
- must not be related to the applicant by birth, marriage, de facto or same sex relationship, or live at the applicant's address;
- must possess a current (unexpired) passport that was issued with at least two years' validity, or have been on the Australian electoral roll at their current address for the past 12 months

APPLICATION FOR ACCREDITATION COVER SHEET

This sheet must accompany your application even though you don't have to fill in any information here.

Practical Experience Report (PER)

The AIBS Accreditation Scheme requires an applicant provide evidence in support of their claims of relevant experience.

The Practical Experience Report (PER) must be completed using the Excel Spreadsheet Template, which can be downloaded from the Applying for Accreditation page on the AIBS website:

Applying for Accreditation (Please see 'Downloads' list at bottom of page)

Please note that a PER that is not completed using this approved template will not be accepted for assessment, and the applicant will be requested to complete this template as advised.

Details should include a list and description of any work or projects on which the applicant has worked (the class, height, size and cost of each building project may be relevant); the functions carried out by the applicant in relation to the listed work or projects and where and when the work was undertaken. The purpose of the information is to establish the level of experience relevant to the requirements of the Scheme, in particular the National Accreditation Framework.

Supplemental verification of experience may also be provided in the form of letters from employers and/or managers, supervisors, team leaders etc. Please note that this is secondary to the PER and cannot act as a substitute.

The applicant is to submit a Practical Experience Report and when completing the report the AIBS recommends that consideration be given to providing evidence that the experience in applying the educational benchmarks and/or competencies required have been met.

The AIBS also requires the PER to detail the projects in which you have been directly involved. It should detail your role in the projects and give a sufficient account of the building surveying issues/challenges in each project. The PER should cover the most recent years working at the level for which you are applying.

Matters you could detail might be how you assessed or inspected complex buildings and the solutions reached. The PER must give sufficient evidence of your ability to work competently and to apply in practice the building surveying knowledge gained.

The Assessors will be looking to see that you have gained appropriate building surveying experience covering a range of building types consistent with the benchmarks and/or core competency areas that align with your education. Some of this evidence may be drawn from the earlier part of your career. Where possible you should identify at what point in your career these benchmarks and/or competencies were achieved.

You may include projects in your PER from up to six years prior to the date of your application.

Applicant to complete:

"I declare that the attached Practical Experience Report is a true and accurate record of work undertaken by me"

Signed: _____ Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Employer References:

The employer references verify the work you have claimed in your PER is true and correct. If you are self-employed and undertaking work on behalf of an accredited building surveyor/s, that work must be verified by the building surveyor/s individually.

You must submit at least one (ideally two) formal letters on professional letterheads from your referee/s.

The following information should be included with the Employer/Building Surveyor References:

“I declare and verify that the enclosed submissions (PER) submitted by:

is a true and accurate record of the work undertaken under my supervision whilst employed by:

Signed: _____

Print Name: _____

Attach:
